

Garden Day at Centenary

Come to the Heart of Downtown Richmond

Friday, April 29, 2016

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

Centenary United Methodist Church (est. 1810), located at 411 East Grace Street, is delighted to be a part of Historic Garden Week of Virginia, a Virginia classic since 1927. Centenary will open its Sanctuary and Chapel for the day. A pre-ordered box lunch for $15 is available for eat-in or take-out. Eat with friends in the Fellowship Hall and tour our beautiful Sanctuary and Chapel. Order before Monday, April 25 with your name, phone number, and number of lunches by emailing cent.umc@verizon.net or phoning (804) 648-8319. Payment for lunches may be made on that day. Parking is available in the church parking lot at 4th and Franklin Streets for $5.00.

Then visit the nearby Executive Mansion of Virginia (est. 1813) open and decorated for Historic Garden Week. The mansion grounds and gardens will also welcome visitors. Admission is free.
