

Herman Edward Daly, 84, of Midlothian, passed away on October 28, 2022. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Mildred Herrmann Daly and Edward Joseph Daly. He is survived by his loving wife of 59 years, Marcia Damasceno Daly; and daughters, Terri Daly Stewart of Atlanta, Ga. and Karen Daly Junker of Richmond, Va. He was the proud grandfather of Anna Kathryn Stewart, William Edward Daly Stewart and Isabel Maria Junker; as well as the loving father-in-law of Jeffrey Ellis Stewart and Christian Stockdale Junker. He is also survived by his adoring sister, Denis Lynn Daly Heyck; and many loved nieces and nephews, extended family and friends. Herman was proud to have grown up in Houston, Texas and that is where he started his educational and professional career. He graduated from Rice University, and went on to receive his Ph.D. in Economics from Vanderbilt University. Herman was foremost a teacher and mentor. He loved engaging with students and peers, learning from all disciplines. Grounded in a deep faith, he was above all a kind and humble man: a dedicated and loving son, brother, husband, father and grandfather. He had a long and illustrious career as a groundbreaking leader in Steady State Economics, and a founding member of the international field of Ecological Economics. His career led him to many locations, including Brazil, Yale University, Louisiana State University, the World Bank in Washington, D.C. and the University of Maryland. His contributions have been innumerable, and he was recognized and awarded nationally and internationally. Herman most enjoyed being with his family, both in the United States and in Brazil, spending as much time as possible with the love of his life, Marcia. They cherished many years together, facing all of life's joys and challenges with a steadfast faith.

The Anthem Never Weather-Beaten Sail Charles Wood

Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore.
Never tired pilgrim's limbs affected slumber more,
Than my wearied sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest.

Ever blooming are the joys of Heaven's high Paradise.
Cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dims our eyes:
Glory there the sun outshines whose beams the blessed only see:
O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my sprite to thee!
